TAKING IT HOME

1. Read Romans 6:5-11. In what ways do these verses encourage you in your daily relationship with Jesus?

2. Read 2 Corinthians 5:14-17. We are invited to be resurrected to new life on a daily basis! As you reflect on your own life, what does it mean for you that "the old life is gone and a new life has begun"? What does that look like for you?

3. Take a moment to let the Good News of the message of Easter really sink in. What is ONE THING for which you would like to express gratitude to God? Would you be willing to share that with your group?

4. As you reflect on the talk from this weekend, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged you, or confused you?

He saw the strips of linen lying there, as well as the burial cloth that had been around Jesus' head. The cloth was folded up by itself, separate from the linen.
